THIS MATTER having been opened to the Court on the Complaint of the Plaintiffs, Chabad Jewish Center of Toms River, Inc. and Rabbi Moshe Gourarie (collectively the “Plaintiffs”) pursuant to the Substantial Burdens, Nondiscrimination, Equal Terms, and Exclusion and Limits provisions of the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 (“RLUIPA”), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000cc(a),(b)(1),(b)(2),(b)(3), the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3604, the Free Exercise Clause of the First Amendment and Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, New Jersey common law and the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J. Stat. Ann. § 10:5-12.5 (the “Complaint”) to use certain real property located at 2001 Church Road, Toms River, New Jersey (the “Subject Property”) as a Chabad house¹ and it appearing that the Township of Toms River (the “Township”) issued

¹ A “Chabad house” is a residence for a rabbi and his family who are affiliated with the Chabad-Lubavitch movement within Chassidic Jewish tradition, and who engage in certain various municipal violation tickets against the Plaintiffs based on their use of the subject property as a Chabad house; and

It further appearing that the Plaintiffs requested that the Township determine that the use of the subject property as a Chabad house is permitted, and that the Township did not respond to such request but stated that a variance was required to permit such use; and

It further appearing that Plaintiffs applied to the Defendant Zoning Board of Adjustment of the Township ("BOA") (together with the Township, "Defendants") for an interpretation that the use of the subject property as a Chabad house was permitted; and

It further appearing that, after hearing, the BOA ultimately denied the Plaintiffs' application; and

It further appearing that Plaintiffs made application to this Court challenging the determination of the BOA and the Township's zoning ordinances excluding the Plaintiffs' proposed religious use on the subject property and seeking to immediately permit the use of the subject property as a Chabad house; and

It further appearing that the Defendant Zoning Board of Adjustment of the Township of Toms River answered the Plaintiffs' Complaint on June 29, 2016; and

It further appearing that the Defendant Township answered the Plaintiffs' Complaint on July 11, 2016; and

The Court having considered the pleadings submitted,

IT IS on this 5th day of ~~January~~ ^{February}, 2018, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED

as follows:

religious observances with other individuals at that location including Sabbath services, meals, religious classes, and Hebrew school classes.

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, 28 U.S.C. § 1367, and 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-2.

2. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants.

3. The Plaintiffs' use of the Property will affect interstate commerce.

4. Venue is proper in this District.

5. The parties waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law under Rules 52 and 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
